

INTERNATIONAL HANDWRITING COMPETITION 2010 – 2011

Just fancy this!

CAUS – the Centre for Humorous and Satirical Arts, in Turin, is announcing a handwriting competition created by Raffaele Palma which is intended for all enthusiasts of handwriting, drawing, computer graphics, puzzles and humour.

Participation in the competition is absolutely free; - there is no entry fee in order to make it open to the largest possible public.

The examining commission, made up of professional authors, will evaluate each work in relation to its technical and graphic difficulty, and to its contents, distinctiveness and originality.

Each candidate can enter a maximum number of three works, created using any technique.

The candidates must design a figure using the letters in their own name and/or surname, or that of a famous personality, taking account of the following inputs:

- etymological meaning
- symbolic contents
- physical attributes
- professional competence
- ethical quality

Each work must include all the letters of the name and/or surname. An attached file with a maximum of 25 lines, in Times New Roman 14 format (or similar) must contain a key containing a description of the work, indicating the position of each letter ( * as shown on p.2 below).

The candidate must also enclose their own personal data and address. All personal data received will be treated to safeguard privacy within the terms of Italian Law No. 675, of 31.12.96.

The works must be sent in electronic format only, possibly zipped, with a maximum length of 400 Kb, to: info@caus.it, in formati JPG, GIF or TIF, within and not after 30 November 2011.

The winners will not receive any cash prizes, but will receive a virtual recognition and medallion, and their work will be published on the website: www.caus.it

The maximum exposure for the three works judged to be the best will be given in the specialised media and on Internet within the first quarter of 2012. A selection of the best works in the competition will appear permanently on the website www.caus.it.
